PRESENTATION FROM THE NEW JERSEY STATE ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE OF ACCREDITATION CERTIFICATE FOR THE HADDON TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT BY PROGRAM DIRECTOR, HARRY DELGADO

Mr. Delgado stated, “The accreditation process has greatly benefited the entire agency. Chief Cavallo and his team, through their hard work and dedication, have fully embraced their accreditation process specifically in the areas of policy development, best police practices, internal compliance, technology and equipment, and community engagement. The on-site inspection revealed a department and governing body that is extremely proud of their agency and their ongoing commitment in serving their community.

Under the leadership of Chief Cavallo, the high level of competence, leadership and professionalism is evident within the agency. Command, rank and file are forward thinking and engaged in self-improvement.

It is the opinion of the assessment team that the Haddon Township Police Department is a highly professional and committed agency which exemplifies all the tenets of Law Enforcement Accreditation at the state and national level.

Therefore, The New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police and the New Jersey Law Enforcement Commission, congratulates, Chief Mark Cavallo, Accreditation Manager Captain Timothy Hak, the members of the Haddon Township Police Department, the Mayor, the Council, and those citizens they so proudly serve, for achieving state Accreditation, joining a very exclusive group of law enforcement agencies that have made this important commitment to excellence in policing. Congratulations! “
