

Welcome to the October edition of the Haddon Township Newsletter!

Stay informed on the latest news and upcoming events.

New Jersey residents can connect with regional networks like the New Jersey Coalition to End Domestic Violence for state-specific resources, programs, and ways to take action.

Mayor Randy Teague, Commissioner Director Lou Cappelli and Commissioner Deputy Director Ed McDonnell celebrate the grand opening of $1.3 million in improvements to several fishing piers at Newton Lake Park.

Oktoberfest on the Square!

Join us Saturday, October 3rd from 2–10 PM for a full day of Oktoberfest fun!

Live music all day
Great Oktoberfest beers
Prizes & giveaways all day long
Plenty of food, drinks & good times

Haddon Township Garden Club Open House

Sunday, October 4th from 2 pm - 4 pm

Community Garden behind Champion School located at 2910 Lynne Ave.

Please join us as we sow the seeds for the HT Garden Club!

Our first-ever Open House will feature a fall planting workshop, ways to get involved with the town's pollinator and community gardens.

Fresh Harvest Market

Join us on Thursday, October 8th from 4-8pm at our 2nd Fall Fresh Market at the popular Haddon Square in downtown Haddon Township, NJ 🍂

A curated evening market filled with delicious fall aromas of local eats, seasonal refreshing drinks, holiday decor, activities, plants, local produce and so much more!

11th Annual Music Festival

The Haddon Township Music Festival is a perfect getaway for music aficionados who prefer to 'experience' live music and interact with artists from all over the Delaware Valley. The 2026 lineup features a diverse range of acts, spanning many different musical genres on two separate stages. The avenue will be lined with food trucks, local artisans, beer gardens, a kid-zone and a 70" foot ferriswheel.

Haunted Haddon Market---10/23 & 10/24

A spellbinding two-night Halloween makers market featuring curated local artisans from NJ and the Philadelphia area, spooky vendors, a pop-up beer garden, live DJ music by John Torres, cozy fire pits with s'mores stations, a photo booth, and family-friendly activities. Saturday night coincides with the annual Brews & Boos Crawl-O-Ween pub crawl, featuring specials at local neighborhood spots, costume contests, and live music.

Westmont Lions 78th Annual Halloween Parade

The 78th Annual Westmont Lions Halloween Parade returns October 29th, featuring creative costumes, floats, and a post-parade dance party.

Free entry and registration for costume and float contests. A rain date has been set for Saturday, October 31st.

Happy Halloween!

The Haddon Township Business Improvement District
10 Reeve Ave.
Haddon Township, NJ 08108
856-833-6267

Update your Email Preferences or Unsubscribe

verticalresponse
Marketing. Just Like That.